Coca-Cola Soccer League

HOT AND GETTING HOTTER

If there is to be an enduring memory of the 1993/94 Coca-Cola Soccer League season it will surely be of 'that' goal, the Damian Mori special which sealed the '94 Grand Final for Adelaide City. The reborn Melbourne Knights and the newly crowned prince of Aussie soccer, Mark Viduka, won just about everything available - except the game which counted the most.

Mori's match-winning blast - surely the greatest finals goal in CCSL history - blew the minor premiers away and scorched the gloss off all the individual awards.

The Knights, despite a memorable season which suggests the club is set for an era of unprecedented success, are now three time grand final losers.

That Mori is a former Somers Street idol added salt to the wound.

Adelaide City, surely now the acknowledged aristocrats of the CCSL, capped off a third successive Grand Final appearance and fifth consecutive finals series with a third national title, all won under super coach Zoran Matic.

For the Aussie super team of the '90's it was a fitting culmination to an era which may end should Matic follow through with his early season prediction that this would be his final year at the club.

In Matic's nine seasons at the helm of Adelaide City the rampaging Zebras have won three titles, contested four grand finals, made the play-offs six times (including the last five in succession), as well as playing in and winning two League Cups.

It is an imposing record indelibly etched into Australian soccer history.

The Melbourne Knights will live to fight another day.

Under new CCSL coach Mirko Bazic, the inspired young Knights flew from ninth last year to the minor premiership and into the grand final, itself a mighty effort.

The Melbourne side fielded the youngest grand final team in history, yet only went down to 'that' goal on the biggest day of the season.

Nearly 90,000 fans packed the grounds for the finals series, an encouraging upwards trend after the relatively disappointing finals box office figures of 1992/93.

No doubt that was in response to some of the grand talent showcased by back-to-back chasing Marconi Fairfield, perennial favourites South Melbourne and Sydney Olympic and the brash newcomers from Sydney United.

Those who believe passionately in the league's further national expansion plans would have been heartened by the efforts of relative CCSL newcomers from areas such as Brisbane, Newcastle and Morwell.

In the eyes of many, soccer in Brisbane was as good as dead and buried many years ago. The Brisbane Strikers, by virtue of the snappy name change, some super promotion and some encouraging on-field performances, disproved that theory in emphatic fashion.

The survival of the once-troubled Newcastle Breakers was an achievement in itself.

For any national soccer competition the virtual birthplace of soccer in this country is an absolute must for inclusion.

Morwell's 1993/94 campaign was a revelation only to the ill-informed, to whom Victoria's Latrobe Valley area is merely a speck on the map.

In reality the 'Valleyites' are Falcon mad these days. No club has worked harder to achieve on or off field success than Morwell. Since its promotion to the CCSL, the Falcons having tackled the responsibility of their new-found status with considerable zest.

Morwell is earning the support of the entire region, which amounts to a potential support base of in excess of 100,000 people. The league should be applauded for its foresight in giving Morwell the green light.

If 'that' Mori goal was the definitive season highlight, the most controversial element of an unforgettable year was the last minute, twice taken penalty which took Olympic into the play-offs and dumped Morwell into the also-ran class.

Unfortunately, fans of Wollongong City, Parramatta and West Adelaide were disappointed with the summer campaigns of their respective clubs.

All three missed the play-offs after promising so much in 92/93, although the Eagles were somewhat compensated by a second League Cup win in four seasons.

Only two clubs genuinely struggled, financially pressed Heidelberg United and the in-coming Brunswick Pumas.

The Pumas, after coming into the league as Melbourne BUSC and changing names, ground and coach mid-season, could be encouraged after making up some ground late season after suffering through the worst start of any club in CCSL history.

Once again Australian soccer's true pedigree shone through, with several CCSL stars now touted as potential pick-ups for overseas clubs.

And whilst the player drain is of some concern, the spotlight on our domestic competition by the rest of the world serves to underscore the progress that has been made over 18 CCSL seasons.

Aussie soccer is hot and getting hotter. Roll on 1994/95.

"Mori's match-winning blast - surely the greatest finals goal in CCSL history

Nearly 90,000 fans packed the grounds for the finals series, an encouraging upwards trend after the relatively disappointing finals box office of 1992/93.

ADELAIDE CITY'S FINALS TRIUMPH

The championship-winning abilities of Zoran Matic and his Adelaide City Zebras are surely the stuff of legends. 'If anyone can, Zoran can' should be the club's catch-cry when the history of Adelaide City is written. Perhaps Sydney United coach Manfred Schaefer showed as much insight as anyone very early in proceedings.

After his side had gone to Hindmarsh Stadium and won the finals opener of a duel-legged eliminator against Matic's side, the Sydney United coach said: "I'm glad we won, but I wish we didn't have to play them again."

But play them again they had to. Goodbye Sydney United and the Adelaide bandwagon was off and running.

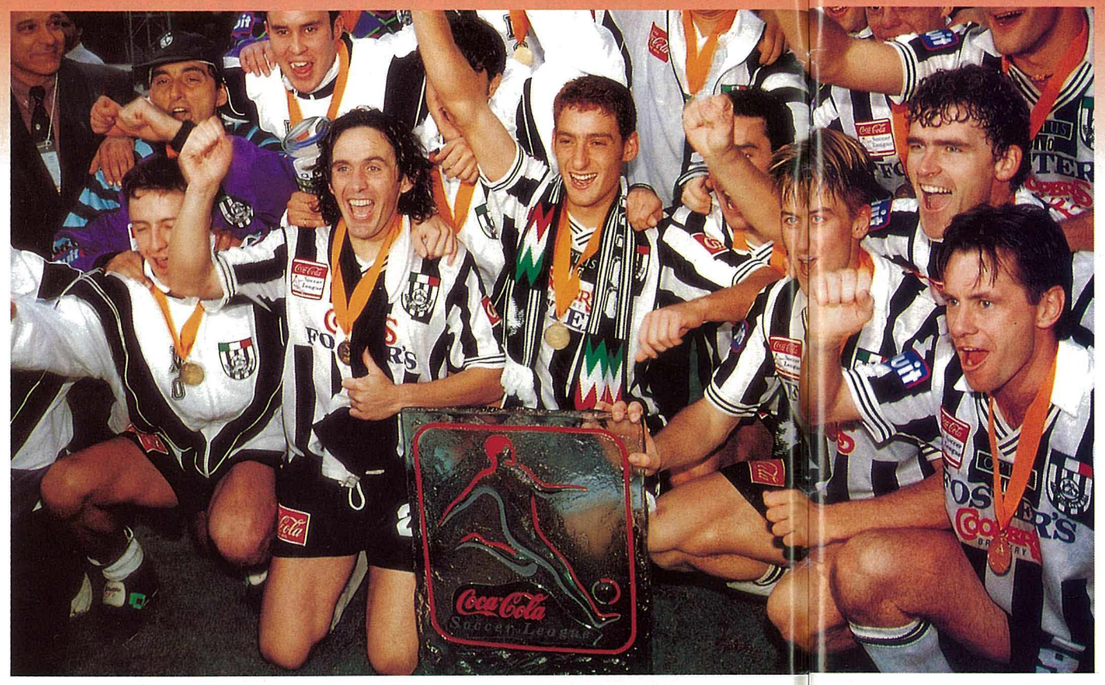
If there are any lingering doubts about the feats of Adelaide City this season, consider the following.

After ten rounds of the 1993/94 home and away season, Adelaide City was sitting a pretty dismal 11th on the ladder and looking anything but a finalist, let alone championship contender.

Only once in seventeen previous CCSL seasons had any club (ironically, Adelaide City in 1989) come from that far behind to even make the top six.

Zoran's Zebras had to make history just to be in with a chance, yet for the sixth time in seven seasons Adelaide City made its traditional charge up the ladder and reached the play-offs.

Once there, the Zebras again had to defy history.



Only one team - Sydney Olympic in 1989/90 - had come from fifth to take the title before Zoran's can-do Zebras repeated history in the season just past.

Even then it looked mission impossible, the club losing its only home finals tie first up and needing four straight wins on the road to take the national crown.

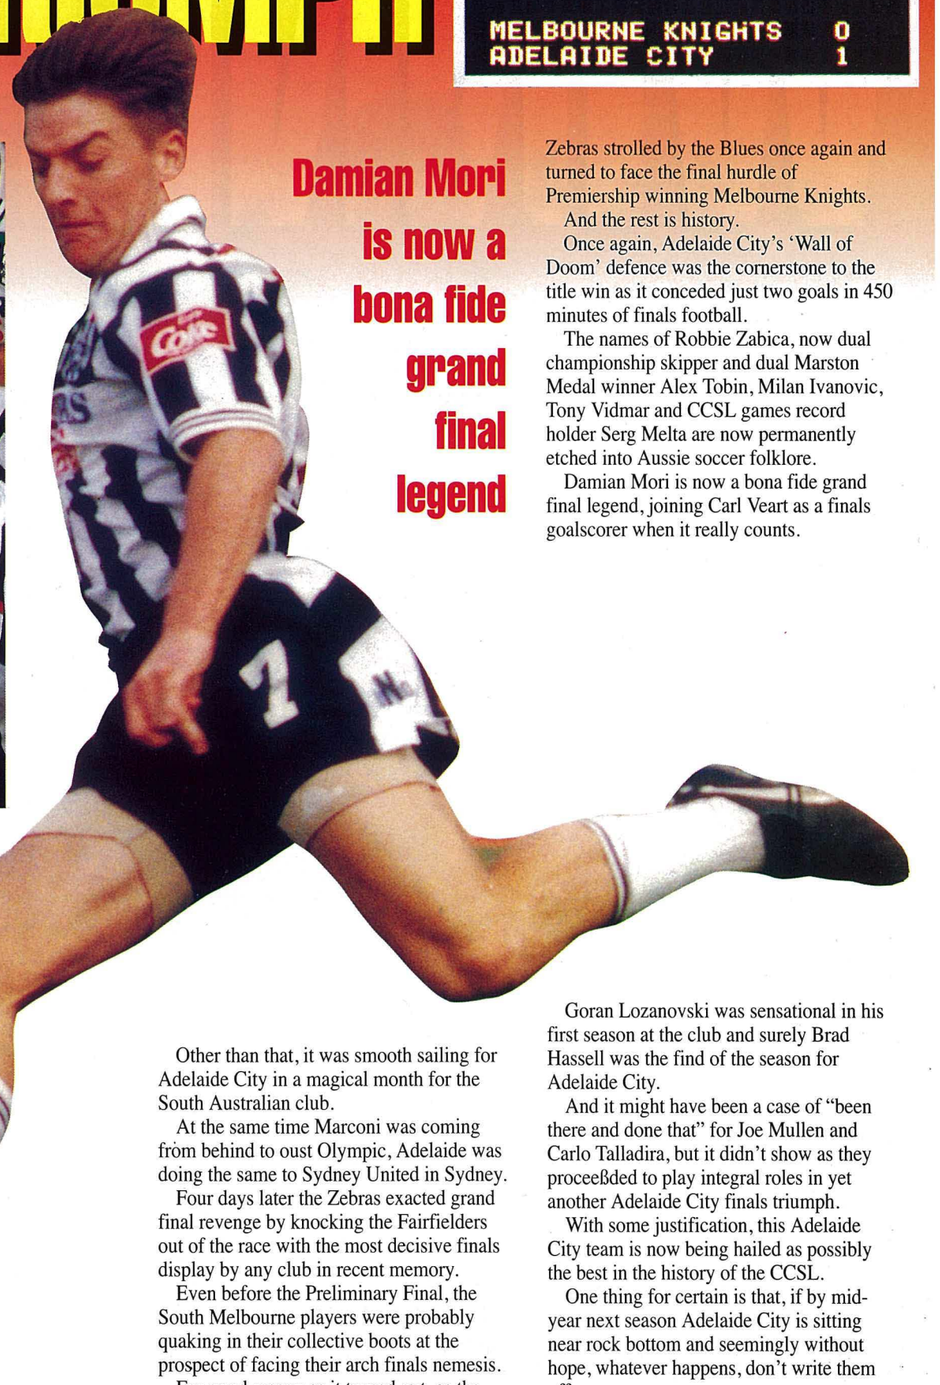
No problems for the Zebras though, as for the third time in as many seasons, Adelaide City stormed through a hectic four finals in 21 days to do the 'impossible.'

It was Adelaide's fifth straight finals series, so they certainly knew the territory. But the surety of their third title success overall and second in three seasons was no less remarkable.

Certainly Adelaide City was dealt a fair slice of luck.

As other clubs suffered near fatal injury problems during the play-offs (Corica at Marconi, Bernal at Olympic etc), Matic was afforded the luxury of fielding the same starting eleven for each of his club's five finals matches.

The only doubt was over the fitness of Damian Mori, who was substituted in each of the opening four games only to decide the biggest game of the season off his own explosive boot.



Damian Mori is now a bona fide grand final legend

Other than that, it was smooth sailing for Adelaide City in a magical month for the South Australian club.

At the same time Marconi was coming from behind to oust Olympic, Adelaide was doing the same to Sydney United in Sydney.

Four days later the Zebras exacted grand final revenge by knocking the Fairfielders out of the race with the most decisive finals display by any club in recent memory.

Even before the Preliminary Final, the South Melbourne players were probably quaking in their collective boots at the prospect of facing their arch finals nemesis.

For good reason as it turned out, as the Zebras strolled by the Blues once again and turned to face the final hurdle of Premiership winning Melbourne Knights.

And the rest is history.

Once again, Adelaide City's 'Wall of Doom' defence was the cornerstone to the title win as it conceded just two goals in 450 minutes of finals football.

The names of Robbie Zabica, now dual championship skipper and dual Marston Medal winner Alex Tobin, Milan Ivanovic, Tony Vidmar and CCSL games record holder Serg Melta are now permanently etched into Aussie soccer folklore.

Damian Mori is now a bona fide grand final legend, joining Carl Veart as a finals goalscorer when it really counts.

Goran Lozanovski was sensational in his first season at the club and surely Brad Hassell was the find of the season for Adelaide City.

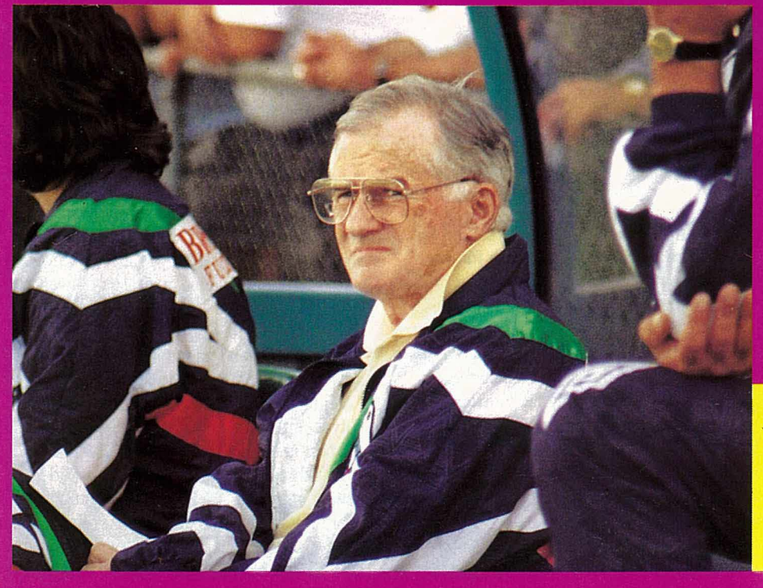
And it might have been a case of "been there and done that" for Joe Mullen and Carlo Talladira, but it didn't show as they proceeßded to play integral roles in yet another Adelaide City finals triumph.

With some justification, this Adelaide City team is now being hailed as possibly the best in the history of the CCSL.

One thing for certain is that, if by mid-year next season Adelaide City is sitting near rock bottom and seemingly without hope, whatever happens, don't write them off.

WINNERS AND LOSERS

The names, faces, places and events which shaped the season. Some won and rejoiced, some lost and dreams were crushed. Such are the emotions which fuel the passions of the greatest game of all.
Thanks for the memories, and here's to more of the same in 1994/95



Adelaide City – The undisputed kings of Australian soccer under the undisputed coaching maestro, Zoran Matic.

South Melbourne - The best side in regular season for the past three years made a mess of the finals once again. And it hurt.

Manfred Schaefer – He might have laid the groundwork for a vibrant play-off bound Sydney United team, but he won't be around to see the fruits of his labour.

Rale Rasic – The Parramatta boys backed themselves with a previously unimaginable petition against the wiley Aussie World Cup coach. Whilst he's still around, it's a fair bet a couple of the players will not be.

Parramatta Eagles – Missed back-to-back play off appearances, but made the League Cup their domain with a third final appearance and second win in four seasons. Also won the inaugural Challenge Cup

FRANK AROK – Twelve months ago celebrating the dawn of a new Marconi era, now packing his bags to head South.

Mike Smith – This playmaker moved from ailing Wollongong to finals bound Marconi only to be cut down by injury early in the season. Let down for a huge talent and a possibly fatal blow for the Fairfielders.

Jim Pyrgolios – Nice guy whose head rolled when panic stricken South Melbourne made it eight straight finals without a win.

Bertie Mariani – Bertie's handling of the very public verbal parry and thrust with Olympic President Harry Michaels was his best effort of the season. Didn't help though, as the former coaching king was replaced later in the season.

The Sydney Olympic players - If only the Olympic player's timing was as precise on the field as it was off. Owed more than a few bucks in back wages, the Olympic players even suggested strike action - on the eve of the finals no less. Hey presto, Olympic raises in excess of $40,000.

Damian Mori – If Mori never kicks another football he'll always be remembered for 'that' grand final goal.

Zjelko Kalac – The big beanstalk they nicknamed 'Spider' came of age in a young Sydney United team. Goalkeeper of the year and probably off to Europe as a reward

MARK VIDUKA – A new prince is born. Faster than a speeding bullet; bends steel in his bare hands; leaps tall buildings in a single bound. Look, up in the sky - guess who ?

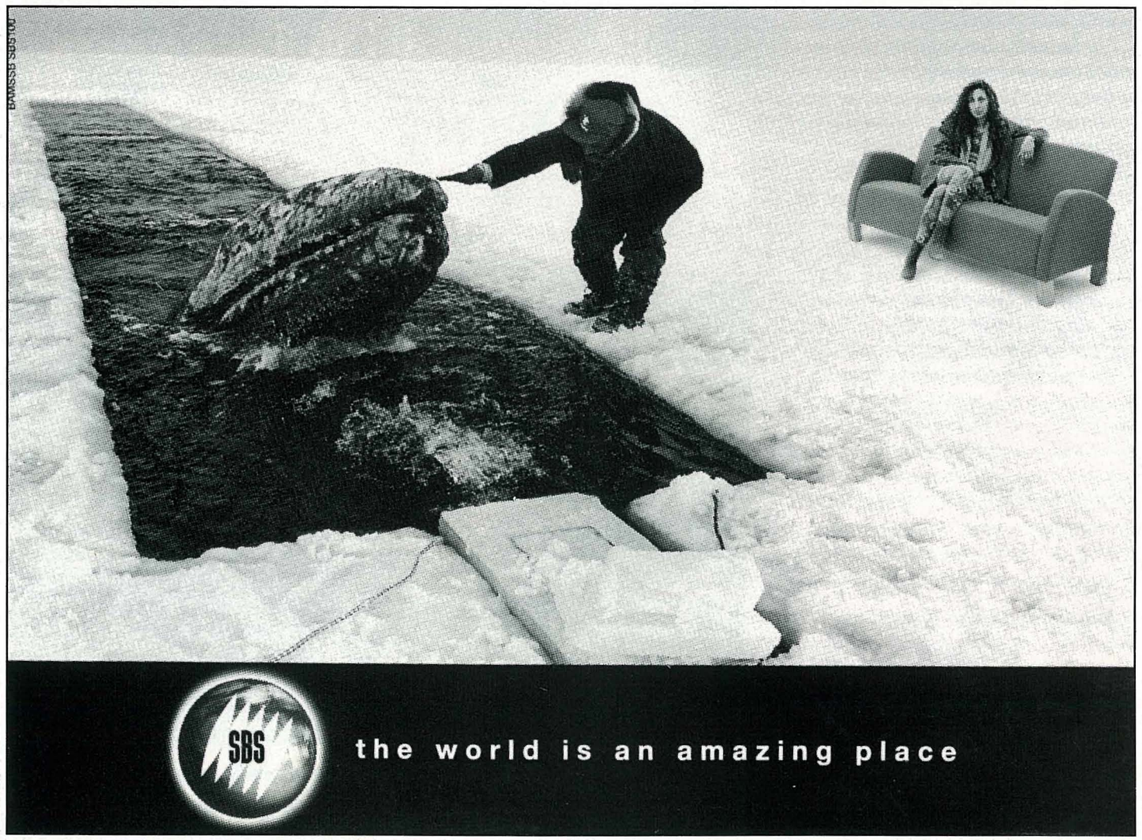
On the Ball will rely heavily on the reports provided by experienced soccer journalists" Michael Tomalaris and Kyle Patterson.



ZORAN MATIC – If winning yet another championship for the Zebras wasn't enough, Matic laughed and joked through an entire press conference. A best-ever performance from one of the best.

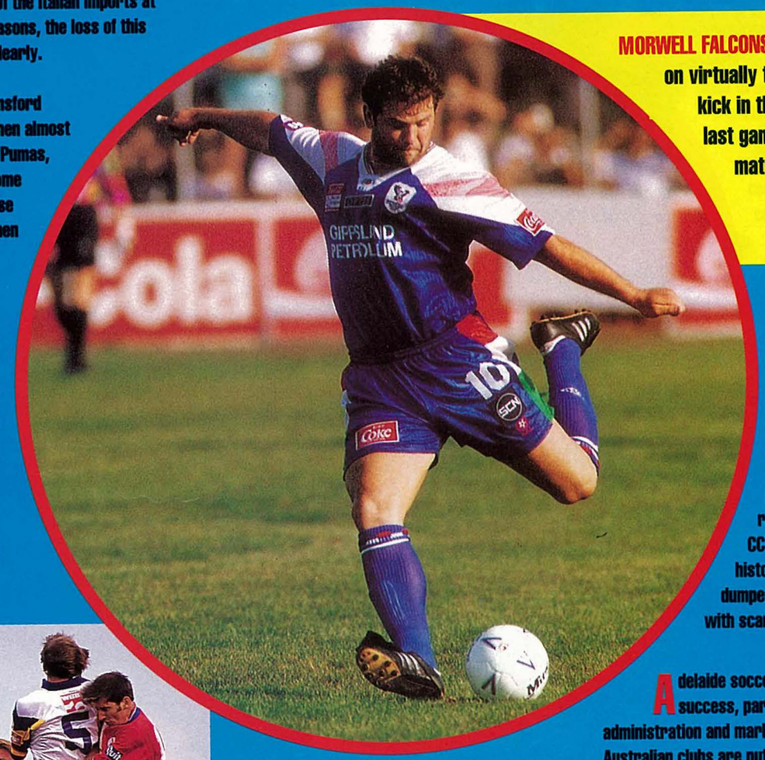
Robbie Zabica – In what may have been his last CCSL season Zabica deserves the accolade as being one of the all-time Aussie greats.

Ermano Pelucchi and Andrea Iccardi – Something fishy about the demise of the Italian imports at Marconi. Whatever the reasons, the loss of this pair cost the Fairfielders dearly.

Alex Kuzmanovic and Ransford Banini – In a season when almost nothing went right for the Pumas, at least they uncovered some genuine star quality in these two overseas imports. When they were out of the medical room they were sheer class.



MORWELL FALCONS – Lost a finals berth on virtually the last controversial kick in the last seconds of the last game of the season - in a match being played 1,000 kilometres away.

Brunswick Pumas– It takes a big effort to produce an all-time best or worst. Unfortunately for the Pumas it was the latter for which their return season will be recalled. The club's worst CCSL start in competition history has probably left dumped coach John Margaritis with scars for life.

BRISBANE STRIKERS – Soccer dead in Queensland? Don't tell that to the Strikers, whose efforts on and off the field over summer were enough to ensure the future of the State in CCSL expansion plans.

Adelaide soccer – Backed by significant success, parochial local support, adept administration and marketing talent, the South Australian clubs are putting Victoria and NSW to shame. Two major brewers fighting over jersey sponsorship rights at Adelaide City tells the story.

Newcastle Breakers– In more trouble than Burke and Wills pre-season, Newcastle survived a testing time. That in itself was a victory.

THE DRUG OFFENSIVE

BRANKO MILOSEVIC – The midfielder who nearly gave the game away a couple of years back was surely the key to Olympic's return to the finals.

Chris Slater – When this remarkable talent from Brisbane gets a run without injury he'll be a sensation.

Alan Hunter – Much maligned and in the veteran class, Hunter was the foundation upon which Brisbane built its relatively successful season.

Melbourne Knights – Well run, well coached, financially in the black and self-sufficient, the Knights came very close to winning everything available in 1993/94. You get the feeling that this vibrant young team will be back when it counts for some time to come.

Heidelberg United – With reluctant coach Drago Sekularac apparently just marking time, this former CCSL power reached its lowest-ever point in the season just completed.

JIM KOURTIS AND BRAD HASSELI – A toss up between the Brunswick Puma and Adelaide Zebra as to which was one of the best discoveries of the season.

David Ratcliffe– Even a good coach can't get a bad team over the line every year. Ratcliffe has been remarkable at Wollongong but even he couldn't stop the rot this year.

Alex Tobin – If tangible proof of his greatness was ever required, a history making second Marston Medal was just that. Playing well in grand finals is the mark of greatness.

JOSIP BISKIC AND ANDREW MARTH – Two Knights veterans who deserved better than their eventual grand final fate. Biskic, although surely nearing retirement, was inspirational during the home and away campaign and finals series. Marth threw off a succession of serious injuries to make himself available for the biggest game of the year. For both it was a third successive grand final disappointment.

SYDNEY OLYMPIC – Limped into the finals on virtually the last controversial kick in the last seconds of the last game of the season.

Marshall Soper – The former 'enfante terrible' of Aussie soccer battled his way through another season and ended it within an ace of the all-time CCSL goalscoring record. Soper, who has already scored more finals goals and more League Cup goals than any other player, deserves to go on and become overall number one.

Greg Brown – When he was struggling so did the Sharks. When Brown hit the accelerator in the latter half of the season he showed just how good he can be and how important he is to West Adelaide.

Brian MacNichol – When all around him was crashing, the Heidelberg winger was a tower of strength in an otherwise abysmal side. No more questions about his committment.

Ufuk Talay – One of the most precocious young talents in the country, Talay spent a fair proportion of the season picking splinters out of his backside. A new coach might be what Talay needs to blossom.

FRANCIS AWARITEFE – Top scorer for the Blues again in the 1993/94 regular season, Awaritefe's abysmal finals strike rate finally caught up with him when he was sensationally dropped from South Melbourne's team during the play-offs.

STEVE CORICA – In probably his last domestic season for many years, the wonderboy of the 1992/93 finals series was a sad sight indeed as he trudged off Parramatta Stadium holding his badly injured shoulder in the second eliminator against Olympic. Without him against Adelaide City the Fairfielders were weak.

CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

THE OPENING WEEKEND

Match: First Elimination Final - 1st Leg
Date: 10/4/94
Result: Adelaide City 0 - Sydney United 1
Venue: Hindmarsh Stadium
Scorers: Moric 56th (SU)
Referee: E.Brazzale
Crowd: 5398

ADELAIDE CITY: Zabica, Ivanovic, Tobin, Vidmar, Melta, Mullen, Talladira, Mori (Maxwell HT), Lozanovski, Hassell, Veart
SYDNEY UNITED: Kalac, Stanton, Kupresak, Popovic, Babic, Petkovic, Hristodoulou, Gibson, Zdrillic, Moric (Pesa 84th), Lamond (Krislovic 88th)
 Adelaide City blew its home finals opener against Sydney United at windy Hindmarsh Stadium, going down to a 56th minute Ante Moric strike. The goal was one of the few highlights of an otherwise uneventful clash, with the Zebras looking little like the finals powerhouse we expected. This was the first interstate final played by the Sydney United.

Match: Second Elimination Final - 1st Leg
Date: 10/4/94
Result: Sydney Olympic 2 - Marconi Fairfield 1
Venue: Parramatta Stadium
Scorers: Kelic 25th and Maloney 70th (SO); de Marigny 37th (MF)
Referee: G.Connelly
Crowd: 11539
Teams -
OLYMPIC: Gibson, Barrett, Sorras, Bernal (Augerinos 16th), Spyridakos, Mendez, Tsekenis, Milosevic, Maloney, Kelic, Trajanovski (Tome 72nd)
MARCONI: Schwarzer, Jolevski, Bingley, de Marigny, Kulevski, van Egmond (Meredith 72nd), Gray, McCulloch (Talay 36th), Corica, Harper, Taliadoros
 A CCSL Elimination Final record crowd turned out to see the old rivals from Olympic and Marconi, with Tommy Sermanni's Olympic edging home despite no Robbie Ironside and an early injury to skipper Andrew Bernal. A Brad Maloney scorcher which cannoned in off Matt Bingley with 11 minutes left on the clock settled the issue.

Match: Major Semi Final - 1st Leg
Date: 10/4/94
Result: South Melbourne 1 - Melbourne Knights 2
Venue: Olympic Park
Scorers: Trimboli 81st (SM); A.Cervinski 20th and 66th (MK)
Referee: R.Lorenc
Crowd: 10823
Teams -
SOUTH MELBOURNE: Anastasiadis, Muscat, Polak, Wade, Tsolakis (Tasios HT), Trimboli, Awaritefe, Valkanis, Goutzioulis, Panopoulos (Hasler 76th), Petersen
KNIGHTS: Miller, D.Cervinski, De Amicis, Vanis, Horvat, Trajcevski, Biskic, A.Cervinski, Viduka, Pondeljak (Vojtek 81st), Buljebasic
 South Melbourne's third successive finals flop commenced with defeat at the hands of premiership-winning Melbourne Knights. Mike Valkanis might have taken out the 'V-Bomber', but up stepped Adrian Cervinski to take starring role with a double strike to seal the game. Despite the absence of Andrew Marth the Knights won with relative ease.

ELIMINATION FOR SYDNEY UNITED AND OLYMPIC

Match: First Elimination Final - 2nd Leg
Date: 17/4/94
Result: Sydney United 0 - Adelaide City 2 (Adelaide wins 2-1 on aggregate)
Venue: Marconi Stadium
Scorers: Hassell 55th and Mori 78th (AC)
Referee: J.Fraser
Crowd: 5607
Teams -
SYDNEY UNITED: Kalac, Stanton, Kupresak, Popovic, Babic, Petkovic, Hristodoulou (Krslovic 75th), Gibson, Zdrillic, Moric (Okon 85th), Lamond
ADELAIDE CITY: Zabica, Ivanovic, Tobin, Vidmar, Melta, Mullen, Talladira, Mori (Maxwell 78th), Lozanovski, Hassell, Veart
 Adelaide City started the wind-up towards a third successive grand final bid as it reversed the result of the elimination final opening leg against Sydney United in Adelaide. The young United held their lead until after half time but seemed to tire as the experienced Zebras powered home to score twice and miss several other chances. Sydney coach Manfred Schaefer predicted after the game that Adelaide City was good enough to go on and win the grand final.

Match: Second Elimination Final - 2nd Leg
Date: 17/4/94
Result: Marconi Fairfield 3 - Sydney Olympic 1 (Marconi wins 4-3 on aggregate)
Venue: Parramatta Stadium
Scorers: Corica 11th, Taliadoros 30th and de Marigny 60th (MF); Trajanovski 76th (SO)
Referee: D.Crawford
Crowd: 13608
Teams -
MARCONI: Schwarzer, Bingley, de Marigny, Kuleski, van Egmond, Meredith (Jolevski 66th), Gray, Talay, Corica (Iocca 62nd), Harper, Taliadoros
OLYMPIC: Gibson, Barrett, Sorras, Bernal (Augerinos 48th), Spyridakos, Mendez (Tome HT), Tsekenis, Milosevic, Maloney, Kelic, Trajanovski
 Olympic and Marconi eclipsed the elimination final record crowd set just a week before when over 13,000 turned out to see the champions overturn a first leg deficit and knock Olympic out of the finals race in style.
Marconi's slashing two goal first half was enough to set up the win, and when fill-in midfielder John Paul de Marigny made it 3-0 after the break even Olympic's grandstand finish wasn't going to be enough. Marconi's win was soured by a serious injury to Steve Corica.

Match: Major Semi Final - 2nd Leg
Date: 17/4/94
Result: Melbourne Knights 2 - South Melbourne 2 (Knights wins 4 -3 on aggregate)
Venue: Olympic Park
Scorers: Viduka 10th and De Amicis 81st (MK); Wade 41st and Awaritefe 80th (SM)
Referee: R.Davies
Crowd: 10780
Teams -
KNIGHTS: Miller, D.Cervinski, De Amicis, Vanis, Horvat, Trajcevski, Biskic, A.Cervinski, Viduka, Pondeljak (Silic 53rd), Buljebasic
SOUTH MELBOURNE: Anastasiadis, Muscat, Hasler, Durakovic (Awaritefe 78th), Wade, Tasios, Trimboli, Boutsianis (Polak 61st), Valkanis, Goutzioulis, Petersen
 The premiers became first into the grand final as the Knights squeaked home against a revamped South Melbourne thanks to a sensational late goal by Fausto De Amicis. After going in with four changes - including the exclusion of the likes of Polak and top gun Awaritefe - the Blues bounced back from an early goal to level the tie with 12 minutes to play. The De Amicis match sealer came 86 minutes in, the pacy defender powering home a 30 metre finals special.

CHAMPS CRUSHED AS ZEBRAS MARCH ON

Match: Minor Semi Final
Date: 20/4/94
Result: Marconi Fairfield 1 - Adelaide City 3

 Adelaide City's championship machine rolled ominously towards another Grand Final with an all the way win over disappointing Marconi in Sydney. Playing as complete a game of finals football as any in recent memory the Zebras dominated Corica-less Fairfield, a three minute two goal blast early in the game signalling the Marconi collapse.

 For the fourth successive year it was a South Melbourne - Adelaide City match-up in the penultimate game of the season, and for the third successive year Zoran Matic's side had the measure of the Blues when it counted.
The Blues again rang in the changes, and again it was to no avail as the club extended its run of finals outs to eight successive games.
The Zebras merely held off South Melbourne's challenge at arms length before cutting loose with two goals in the closing half hour.

 The Knights were hoping for third time (in four years) grand final luck against the South Australians, but few had considered the finals pedigree born of Adelaide City's three successive grand final campaigns. In the end, the CCSL showpiece was a struggle in the trenches between two evenly matched teams, rather than the expected dramatic shootout. It took a special goal to win the most important game of the season and, ironically, it was a former Knight who did the trick. Damian Mori decided the championship in the most spectacular fashion possible 68 minutes into the grand final. The speedster took off from wide left on the halfway line, careered deep into opposition territory and cut inside before unleashing an unstoppable 30 metre thunderbolt for the only goal of the game. Yet some argue Mori shouldn't have even been on the park after an early game tackle on his marker, Vinko Buljebasic, put the Knights player out of the game and left his side's tactical planning in disarray. However, the enduring memory will always be Mori's goal, already acclaimed as the greatest in CCSL finals history.

'V-BOMBER' HITS TARGET AT 1993/94 AWARDS

Pre-season, the name of Mark Viduka was known by a mere handful of devoted soccer fans.

Sure, his last year at the AIS had seen him named as Northern Division Youth Player of the Year in 1992/93.

But how often in the past have we seen the flames of fortune flicker and die for under age champions?

By the time the 1993/94 CCSL awards night rolled around, Viduka's star was on the horizon no more.

At just 18 years of age the burly 'V-Bomber' was being hailed as Aussie soccer's next big thing, our possible first million dollar export.

In just eight sensational months, the gifted Melbourne Knights teenager produced one of the most spectacular CCSL single seasons on record, and Viduka was hailed by his peers with an unprecedented three individual awards on presentation night in Melbourne.

Viduka missed a remarkable 9 out of 26 regular season games on national team duties, yet his opening leg of the trifecta was to take out the league top goalscorer award.

His success as under-21 best to recieve the newly named Sam Parpasavas award was an odds-on bet.

His crowning achievement was success in the big one, the Warren Medal, awarded to the best player of the season.

The individual hat-trick was testimony to the kid's potential to become a player on the world stage.

In a season when the Knights won just about everything - except the grand final - it was no surprise to see coach Mirko Bazic acclaimed as the best in his field.

Sydney United's Zeljko Kalac took out the Reusch award for the best goalkeeper and the top whistleman was Richard Lorenc who won the Samsung award.

NATIONAL SOCCER LEAGUE CUP

EAGLES FLY HIGH AGAIN

Rale Rasic's Parramatta Eagles started the season in splendid style by beating Sydney United 2-0 in the pre-season League Cup Final, played on the eve of the home and away campaign.

And the Eagles equalled or broke a couple of records along the way.

Cup win number two - the club's second in four seasons - puts Parramatta on equal footing with other two-time cup winners Brisbane City, Sydney Olympic, Adelaide City and Apia Leichhardt.

And veteran striker Marshall Soper's three cup goals during the series took him to all-time goalscoring leadership in cup history.

It was also coach Rasic's third cup triumph.

The Eagles could hardly have felt any nerves on final day, after all it was the third time in four seasons the League Cup specialists had faced off in the knock-out competition final, each time at the same Marconi Stadium venue.

In 1990/91 the Eagles rolled Preston 1-0, whilst last year Rasic's side was on the recieving end of a 2-1 defeat at the hands of Heidelberg United.

It was sweet revenge for the Eagles in 1993/94 as they took on and beat the side tipped as the big improver this season, Manfred Schaefer's youngbloods of Sydney United.

Led by newly signed Victorian Joe Spiteri - man of the match in the big game and probably player of the series - the Eagles turned up the heat in the final and produced a grand-stand finish.

Parramatta led after Velimir Kupresak's early own goal but didn't clinch the cup until five minutes from time when virtual unknown 19 year-old substitute Brendan Renauld scored the clincher.

The series itself - for the first time played as a pre-season competition - produced plenty of upsets.

Sydney United's youngsters showed plenty of spirit in the lead-up to the final, beating the Melbourne Knights and perennial finalists Adelaide City and South Melbourne (both away) before flunking the final exam.

South Melbourne showed some blistering early form before a dramatic exit on penalties in the semi finals (the sixth time in seven seasons that the Blues have made the last four).
